Specification of Competency Standards of the Beauty and Hairdressing Industry Unit of Competency

Functional Area: Operational Management

Range This unit of competency (UoC) is applicable in the warehousing department of the hairdressing industry. It involves planning, analysis and judgement, and some management duties. Practitioners should be able to formulate appropriate warehousing management plans for the warehousing department in the hairdressing business to optimize the warehouse operation to cater the warehousing and accessing needs of goods. Level 5 Credit 6 (for reference only) Competency Performance Requirements 1. Possess knowledge of inventory management • Understand the properties of hairdressing products and their storage and transportation requirements, such as: temperature and humidity control • Understand the properties of hairdressing products and their storage and transportation requirements, such as: temperature and humidity control • Understand the requirements on occupational safety, health and environment • Understand the requirements on sock flow, stock level and stock types • Understand the requirements on stock flow, stock level and stock types 2. Formulate warehousing management • Formulate a warehouse (e.g., parking restrictions, such as: • Hairdressing products and relevant regulations, such as: • Hairdressing products • Bar code system showing inventory storing locations • Standards for accessing hairdressing products • Standards for accessing hairdressing products • Bar code system showing invento	Title	Formulate Warehousing Management industry. It involves planning, analysis and judgement, and some management plans for the warehousing department in the hairdressing business to optimize the warehouse operation to cater the warehousing and accessing needs of goods. Level 5 Credit 6 (for reference only) Competency Performance Requirements 1. Possess knowledge of inventory management • Understand the properties of hairdressing products and their storage and transportation requirements, such as: temperature and humidity control • Understand regulations related to warehousing management, such as: handling of dangerous goods, requirements on occupational safety, health and environment • Understand the characteristics of warehouses, such as: are, floor load and external infrastructure of an isolated warehouse (e.g. parking restrictions or charges that and infrastructure of an isolated warehouse (e.g. parking restrictions or charges that and infrastructure of an isolated warehouse (e.g. parking restrictions or charges that may increase the cost of incoming and out-going of goods) • Understand the requirements on stock flow, stock level and stock types 2. Formulate awarehouse management plan according to the nature of the warehouse, storage requirements for hairdressing products and relevant regulations, such as: interaction, ways of collecting different inventories, such as: first-in-first-out, last-in-last-out, minimum quantity, etc. • Bar code system showing inventory storing locations • Standards for averhousing environment and monitoring guidelines on implementation • Use relevant warehousing software system	Code	105438L5
Credit 6 (for reference only) Competency Performance Requirements 1. Possess knowledge of inventory management • Understand the properties of hairdressing products and their storage and transportation requirements, such as: temperature and humidity control • Understand the characteristics of warehousing management, such as: handling of dangerous goods, requirements on occupational safety, health and environment • Understand the characteristics of warehouses, such as: area, floor load and external infrastructure of an isolated warehouse or outlet-associated warehouse • Understand the requirements on stock flow, stock level and stock types 2. Formulate warehousing management • Formulate a warehousing product flow, stock level and stock types 2. Formulate warehouse from anagement plan according to the nature of the warehouse, storage requirements for hairdressing products and relevant regulations, such as: • Hairdressing product delivery procedure • Ways of collecting different inventories, such as: first-in-first-out, last-in-last-out, minimum quantity, etc. • Bar code system showing inventory storing locations • Standards for accessing hairdressing products • Management of the warehouse fire prevention and security system, and guideline on implementation • Use relevant warehousing software system for data input and record • Insurance arrangement for warehouse and inventories, and guidelines on implementation •	Range	Practitioners should be able to formulate appropriate warehousing management plans for the warehousing department in the hairdressing business to optimize the warehouse operation to
Competency Performance Requirements 1. Possess knowledge of inventory management • Understand the properties of hairdressing products and their storage and transportation requirements, such as: temperature and humidity control • Understand regulations related to warehousing management, such as: handling of dangerous goods, requirements on occupational safety, health and environment • Understand the characteristics of warehouses, such as: area, floor load and external infrastructure of an isolated warehouse or outlet-associated warehouse • Understand the characteristics of warehouses, such as: area, floor load and external infrastructure of an isolated warehouse (e.g. parking restrictions or charges that may increase the cost of incoming and out-going of goods) • Understand the requirements on stock flow, stock level and stock types 2. Formulate warehousing management • Formulate a warehouse management plan according to the nature of the warehouse, storage requirements for hairdressing products and relevant regulations, such as: • Hairdressing product delivery procedure • Ways of collecting different inventories, such as: first-in-first-out, last-in-last-out, minimum quantity, etc. • Bar code system showing inventory storing locations • Standards for warehousing environment and monitoring guidelines on implementation • Use relevant warehousing software system for data input and record • Insurance arrangement for warehouse and inventories, and guidelines on implementation	Level	5
1. Possess knowledge of inventory management • Understand the properties of hairdressing products and their storage and transportation requirements, such as: temperature and humidity control • Understand regulations related to warehousing management, such as: handling of dangerous goods, requirements on occupational safety, health and environment • Understand the characteristics of warehouses, such as: area, floor load and external infrastructure of an isolated warehouse or outlet-associated warehouse • Understand the internal and external strengths and weaknesses as well as time and ott warehousing restrictions of the warehouse (e.g. parking restrictions or charges that may increase the cost of incoming and out-going of goods) • Understand the requirements on stock flow, stock level and stock types 2. Formulate warehousing management • Formulate a warehouse management plan according to the nature of the warehouse, storage requirements for hairdressing products and relevant regulations, such as: • Hairdressing product delivery procedure • Ways of collecting different inventories, such as: first-in-first-out, last-in-last-out, minimum quantity, etc. • Bar code system showing inventory storing locations • Standards for warehousing environment and monitoring guidelines • Management of the warehouse and inventories, and guidelines on implementation • Use relevant warehousing software system for data input and record • Insurance arrangement for warehouse and inventories, and guidelines on implementation	Credit	6 (for reference only)
 Formulate a warehouse management plan according to the nature of the warehouse, storage requirements for hairdressing products and relevant regulations; and Improve warehousing management regularly according to its performance indicators. 	Competency	 Possess knowledge of inventory management Understand the properties of hairdressing products and their storage and transportation requirements, such as: temperature and humidity control Understand regulations related to warehousing management, such as: handling of dangerous goods, requirements on occupational safety, health and environment Understand the characteristics of warehouses, such as: area, floor load and external infrastructure of an isolated warehouse or outlet-associated warehouse Understand the internal and external strengths and weaknesses as well as time and other warehousing restrictions of the warehouse (e.g. parking restrictions or charges that may increase the cost of incoming and out-going of goods) Understand the requirements on stock flow, stock level and stock types Formulate warehouse management plan according to the nature of the warehouse, storage requirements for hairdressing products and relevant regulations, such as: Hairdressing product delivery procedure Ways of collecting different inventories, such as: first-in-first-out, last-in-last-out, minimum quantity, etc. Bar code system showing inventory storing locations Standards for accessing hairdressing products Management of the warehouse fire prevention and security system, and guidelines on implementation Use relevant warehousing software system for data input and record Insurance arrangement for warehouse and inventories, and guidelines on implementation Make preparations and follow up properly, including in/out list for goods and streaming of goods Formulate stocktaking guidelines Formulate effective resources management system and service standard and a
Remark	Assessment Criteria	 Formulate a warehouse management plan according to the nature of the warehouse, storage requirements for hairdressing products and relevant regulations; and
	Remark	