Specification of Competency Standards for the Fashion Industry Unit of Competency

Functional Area - Laundry Services

Pick and assemble finished clothing items and match them with laundry services orders. This applies to individuals who are required to pick and assemble clothing items from the finished stock and match them with laundry services orders. Level 2 Credit 1 Competency Performance Requirements 1. Knowledge in the subject area Be able to understand the organisational procedures of picking and assembling finished clothing items and order matching (e.g. automated system) outline the common methods of picking and assembling clothing items outline the common methods of picking and assembling clothing items outline the common methods of picking and assembling clothing items outline the common problems associated with the process of picking and assembling clothing items as well as their handling arrangements (e.g. lost identification tag, missing order items) understand the storage requirements of matched order items (e.g. clean laundry trolley) 2. Application and process Be able to identify the established procedures and methods for picking and assembling finished clothing items pick and assemble clothing items from the finished stock and match them with laundry services orders in accordance with the business procedures check order contents (e.g. style, quantity) to ensure they are identical with that of the assembled clothing items request confirmation of clothing items or support from related parties when necessary store matched order items according to established procedures or requirements 3. Exhibit professionalism Be able to carefully check order contents and match them with the corresponding clothing items The integrated outcome requirements of this UoC are the abilities to accomplish: Picking and assembling clothing items from the finished stock and matching them with laundry services orders by following established business procedures.	Title	Pick and assemble items applies to individuals who are required to pick and assemble clothing items from the finished stock and match them with laundry services orders. Level 2 Credit 1 Competency Performance Requirements 1. Knowledge in the subject area Be able to understand the organisational procedures of picking and assembling finished clothing items and order matching (e.g. automated system) outline the common methods of picking and assembling clothing items outline the common problems associated with the process of picking and assembling clothing items as well as their handling arrangements (e.g. lost identification tag, missing order items) understand the storage requirements of matched order items (e.g. clean laundry trolley) 2. Application and process Be able to identify the established procedures and methods for picking and assembling finished clothing items pick and assemble clothing items from the finished stock and match them with laundry services orders in accordance with the business procedures check order contents (e.g. style, quantity) to ensure they are identical with that of the assembled clothing items request confirmation of clothing items or support from related parties when necessary store matched order items according to established procedures or requirements 3. Exhibit professionalism Be able to carefully check order contents and match them with the corresponding clothing items The integrated outcome requirements of this UoC are the abilities to accomplish: Picking and assembling clothing items from the finished stock and matching them with laundry services orders by following established business procedures.	Code	110319L2
Credit Derformance Requirements 1. Knowledge in the subject area Be able to understand the organisational procedures of picking and assembling finished clothing items and order matching (e.g. automated system) outline the common methods of picking and assembling clothing items outline the common problems associated with the process of picking and assembling clothing items as well as their handling arrangements (e.g. lost identification tag, missing order items) understand the storage requirements of matched order items (e.g. clean laundry trolley) 2. Application and process Be able to identify the established procedures and methods for picking and assembling finished clothing items pick and assemble clothing items from the finished stock and match them with laundry services orders in accordance with the business procedures check order contents (e.g. style, quantity) to ensure they are identical with that of the assembled clothing items request confirmation of clothing items or support from related parties when necessary store matched order items according to established procedures or requirements 3. Exhibit professionalism Be able to carefully check order contents and match them with the corresponding clothing items The integrated outcome requirements of this UoC are the abilities to accomplish: Picking and assembling clothing items from the finished stock and matching them with laundry services orders by following established business procedures.	Range	applies to individuals who are required to pick and assemble clothing items from the finished
Performance Requirements 1. Knowledge in the subject area Be able to understand the organisational procedures of picking and assembling finished clothing items and order matching (e.g. automated system) outline the common methods of picking and assembling clothing items outline the common problems associated with the process of picking and assembling clothing items as well as their handling arrangements (e.g. lost identification tag, missing order items) understand the storage requirements of matched order items (e.g. clean laundry trolley) 2. Application and process Be able to identify the established procedures and methods for picking and assembling finished clothing items pick and assemble clothing items from the finished stock and match them with laundry services orders in accordance with the business procedures check order contents (e.g. style, quantity) to ensure they are identical with that of the assembled clothing items request confirmation of clothing items or support from related parties when necessary store matched order items according to established procedures or requirements 3. Exhibit professionalism Be able to carefully check order contents and match them with the corresponding clothing items The integrated outcome requirements of this UoC are the abilities to accomplish: Picking and assembling clothing items from the finished stock and matching them with laundry services orders by following established business procedures.	Level	2
1. Knowledge in the subject area Be able to understand the organisational procedures of picking and assembling finished clothing items and order matching (e.g. automated system) outline the common methods of picking and assembling clothing items outline the common problems associated with the process of picking and assembling clothing items as well as their handling arrangements (e.g. lost identification tag, missing order items) understand the storage requirements of matched order items (e.g. clean laundry trolley) 2. Application and process Be able to identify the established procedures and methods for picking and assembling finished clothing items pick and assemble clothing items from the finished stock and match them with laundry services orders in accordance with the business procedures check order contents (e.g. style, quantity) to ensure they are identical with that of the assembled clothing items request confirmation of clothing items or support from related parties when necessary store matched order items according to established procedures or requirements 3. Exhibit professionalism Be able to carefully check order contents and match them with the corresponding clothing items The integrated outcome requirements of this UoC are the abilities to accomplish: Picking and assembling clothing items from the finished stock and matching them with laundry services orders by following established business procedures.	Credit	1
 carefully check order contents and match them with the corresponding clothing items Assessment Criteria Picking and assembling clothing items from the finished stock and matching them with laundry services orders by following established business procedures. 	Competency	 1. Knowledge in the subject area Be able to understand the organisational procedures of picking and assembling finished clothing items and order matching (e.g. automated system) outline the common methods of picking and assembling clothing items outline the common problems associated with the process of picking and assembling clothing items as well as their handling arrangements (e.g. lost identification tag, missing order items) understand the storage requirements of matched order items (e.g. clean laundry trolley) 2. Application and process Be able to identify the established procedures and methods for picking and assembling finished clothing items pick and assemble clothing items from the finished stock and match them with laundry services orders in accordance with the business procedures check order contents (e.g. style, quantity) to ensure they are identical with that of the assembled clothing items request confirmation of clothing items or support from related parties when necessary store matched order items according to established procedures or requirements 3. Exhibit professionalism Picking and assembling clothing items from the finished stock and matching them with laundry services orders by following established business procedures.
laundry services orders by following established business procedures.	Assessment Criteria	The integrated outcome requirements of this UoC are the abilities to accomplish:
Remark
	Remark	