Specification of Competency Standards for the Fashion Industry Unit of Competency

Functional Area - Auxiliary Skill

Title	Measure, lay and cut materials for tailored garment
Code	110366L3
Range	Measure, lay and cut materials to produce tailored garments. This applies to individuals who are already equipped with complex garment pattern making competency and are required to measure, lay and cut all materials for the making of tailored garments with reference to the design, body shape and material characteristics. It may involve the selection and modification of patterns to meet design and client's requirements.
Level	3
Credit	5
Competency	Performance Requirements 1. Knowledge in the subject area Be able to identify the key points of measurement needed for tailored garments apply the methods of body measurement select and modify patterns to meet design and client's requirements recognise all relevant body shape characteristics that determine the requirements assess the effects of fabric characteristics on garment construction apply the laying and cutting methods for tailored garments
	 2. Application and process Be able to examine body measurements as well as body shape characteristics of the client determine the fabric and incorporate the special needs of the client into the design convert the design into the patterns or select/modify the patterns to meet the requirements check materials against quality standards lay up materials according to the design and pattern requirements (e.g. grainline, plaid alignment) cut materials according to the design and pattern requirements mark all information needed for tailored garment sewing 3. Exhibit professionalism Be able to ensure a thorough understanding of the client's requirements and preferences demonstrate a good knowledge of body shape characteristics and its effects on tailored garments
Assessment Criteria	The integrated outcome requirements of this UoC are the abilities to accomplish:
	 Measuring, laying and cutting materials for making a tailored garment that meets the client's needs.
Remark
	•