

Specification of Competency Standards
for the Fashion
Unit of Competency.

Functional Area - Quality System & Sustainability

Title	Review material quality reports
Code	111539L5
Range	Review material quality reports to identify areas for improvement. This unit of competency applies to practitioners involved in reviewing developed material quality reports to trace the sources of problems and rectify them, ensuring that the developed materials meet the required quality standards.
Level	5
Credit	3 (For Reference Only)
Competency	Performance Requirements - Knowledge in the subject area - Be able to - demonstrate in-depth knowledge of common methods used to evaluate material quality (e.g., testing and inspection) - evaluate different types of material quality reports (e.g. test reports) to identify and investigate quality issues - understand the precision, deviation, and limitations of different material quality evaluation methods - understand the placement of materials in fashion (e.g. fashion body, cuffs) and how their end use impacts quality requirements - Application and process - Be able to - identify and collect data related to quality issues from material quality reports - analyse data from material quality reports and combine it with material placement and end use to identify quality issues and their potential causes - evaluate the accuracy, validity, and reliability of material quality reports - compare report findings with historical records to identify long-term impacts on operations and opportunities for improvement - develop formal records of material performance and problem investigations by reviewing material quality reports, and propose recommendations for improvement - Exhibit professionalism - Be able to - systematically review and analyse information to evaluate material performance and identify areas requiring improvement - adopt appropriate corrective/root-cause measures to resolve material quality issues
Assessment Criteria	The integrated outcome requirements of this UoC are the abilities to accomplish: Conduct systematic examinations of material quality reports to identify operational areas requiring improvement, ensuring that fashion materials meet predetermined quality levels.
Remark	