Specification of Competency Standards for the Logistics Industry Unit of Competency

2. Code LOCUSS410A This unit of competency is applicable to logistics service providers. Practitioners should be capable of applying workplace procedures to manage emergencies in workplace.	1. Title	Manage and handle emergencies
This unit of competency is applicable to logistics service providers. Practitioners should be capable of applying workplace procedures to manage emergencies in workplace. 4 5. Credit 3 (for reference only) Performance Requirements:
4. Level 4 5. Credit 3 (for reference only) 6. Competency 6. Competency 6. Competency 6. I Knowledge of emergency management • Know about relevant regulations (e.g., Dangerous Goods Ordinance and Occupational Safety and Health Ordinance) • Understand company objectives and policy 6.2.1 Respond to emergency situations • Identify and assess emergency and potential emergency response plans/procedures (e.g., availability of technical information, designation of emergency response leader and alternate emergency response leader, identification of clear internal/external communication channels and notification lists, protection of personnel safety; identification of alternate water sources and supplies of safety equipment; and protection of property) • Handle situations appropriately with reference to workplace emergency procedures • Complete incident reports accurately in accordance with regulatory and workplace emergency procedures • Provide assistance to conduct an initial survey of the scene of an emergency • Provide assistance to conduct an initial survey of the scene of an emergency errocedures • Provide assistance to control the site before and after the arrival of emergency services • Arrange medical assistance and support as required in accordance with workplace procedures • Arrange medical assistance and support as required in accordance with relevant workplace procedures • Arrange first aid support before the arrival of medical assistance in accordance with reference to established workplace emergency situations and meet the needs with reference to established workplace emergency procedures • Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures • Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures • Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace emergency
4. Level 4 5. Credit 3 (for reference only) Performance Requirements:
6. Competency 6. 1 Knowledge of emergency management • Know about relevant regulations (e.g., Dangerous Goods Ordinance and Occupational Safety and Health Ordinance) • Understand company objectives and policy 6.2.1 Respond to emergency situations • Identify and assess emergency and potential emergency situations • Prioritise needs in accordance with the workplace emergency response plans/procedures (e.g., availability of technical information, designation of emergency response leader and alternate emergency response leader, identification of clear internal/external communication channels and notification lists, protection of personnel safety; identification of alternate water sources and supplies of safety equipment; and protection of property) • Handle situations appropriately with reference to workplace emergency procedures • Complete incident reports accurately in accordance with regulatory and workplace emergency procedures 6.2.2 Take required actions • Fulfil responsibilities in accordance with the emergency response plans and procedures • Provide assistance to conduct an initial survey of the scene of an emergency • Provide assistance to control the site before and after the arrival of emergency services 6.2.3 Arrange support and assistance • Arrange medical assistance and support as required in accordance with workplace procedures • Arrange first aid support before the arrival of medical assistance in accordance with reference to established workplace emergency procedures • Lentity safety needs arising from emergency situations and meet the needs with reference to established workplace emergency procedures • Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures • Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures • Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures • Capable of taking required actions to	4. Level
6.1 Knowledge of emergency management	5. Credit	3 (for reference only)
Know about emergency management Know about relevant regulations (e.g., Dangerous Goods Ordinance and Occupational Safety and Health Ordinance) Understand company objectives and policy 6.2.1 Respond to emergency situations Identify and assess emergency and potential emergency situations Prioritise needs in accordance with the workplace emergency response plans/procedures (e.g., availability of technical information, designation of emergency response leader and alternate emergency response leader, identification of clear internal/external communication channels and notification lists, protection of personnel safety; identification of alternate water sources and supplies of safety equipment; and protection of property) Handle situations appropriately with reference to workplace emergency procedures Complete incident reports accurately in accordance with regulatory and workplace emergency procedures Fulfil responsibilities in accordance with the emergency response plans and procedures Provide assistance to conduct an initial survey of the scene of an emergency Provide assistance to control the site before and after the arrival of emergency services 6.2.3 Arrange support and assistance Arrange medical assistance Arrange medical assistance and support as required in accordance with workplace procedures Arrange first aid support before the arrival of medical assistance in accordance with relevant workplace procedures Identity safety needs arising from emergency situations and meet the needs with reference to established workplace emergency procedures Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures Capable of responding to emergency Capable of taking req	6. Competency	Performance Requirements:
Know about relevant regulations (e.g., Dangerous Goods Ordinance and Occupational Safety and Health Ordinance) Understand company objectives and policy 6.2.1 Respond to emergency situations Identify and assess emergency and potential emergency situations Prioritise needs in accordance with the workplace emergency response plans/procedures (e.g., availability of technical information, designation of emergency response leader and alternate emergency response leader, identification of clear internal/external communication channels and notification lists, protection of personnel safety; identification of alternate water sources and supplies of safety equipment; and protection of property) Handle situations appropriately with reference to workplace emergency procedures Complete incident reports accurately in accordance with regulatory and workplace emergency procedures 6.2.2 Take required actions Fulfil responsibilities in accordance with the emergency response plans and procedures Provide assistance to conduct an initial survey of the scene of an emergency Provide assistance to control the site before and after the arrival of emergency services 6.2.3 Arrange support and assistance Arrange medical assistance and support as required in accordance with workplace procedures 6.2.4 Communicate with staff members and visitors Identity safety needs arising from emergency situations and meet the needs with reference to established workplace emergency procedures Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures 7. Assessment Criteria The integrated outcome requirements of this unit of competency are Capable of responding to emergency Capable of responding to emergency		6.1 Knowledge of emergency management
Safety and Health Ordinance) • Understand company objectives and policy 6.2.1 Respond to emergency situations • Identify and assess emergency and potential emergency response plans/procedures (e.g., availability of technical information, designation of emergency response leader and alternate emergency response leader, identification of clear internal/external communication channels and notification lists, protection of personnel safety; identification of alternate water sources and supplies of safety equipment; and protection of property) • Handle situations appropriately with reference to workplace emergency procedures • Complete incident reports accurately in accordance with regulatory and workplace emergency procedures 6.2.2 Take required actions • Fulfil responsibilities in accordance with the emergency response plans and procedures • Provide assistance to conduct an initial survey of the scene of an emergency • Provide assistance to control the site before and after the arrival of emergency services 6.2.3 Arrange support and assistance • Arrange medical assistance and support as required in accordance with workplace procedures • Arrange first aid support before the arrival of medical assistance in accordance with relevant workplace procedures 6.2.4 Communicate with staff members and visitors • Identity safety needs arising from emergency situations and meet the needs with reference to established workplace emergency procedures • Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures • Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace emergency procedures 7. Assessment Criteria The integrated outcome requirements of this unit of competency are • Capable of responding to emergency • Capable of taking required actions to manage emergencies		Know about emergency management
Understand company objectives and policy 6.2.1 Respond to emergency situations Identify and assess emergency and potential emergency response plans/procedures (e.g., availability of technical information, designation of emergency response leader and alternate emergency response leader, identification of clear internal/external communication channels and notification lists, protection of personnel safety; identification of alternate water sources and supplies of safety equipment; and protection of property) Handle situations appropriately with reference to workplace emergency procedures Complete incident reports accurately in accordance with regulatory and workplace emergency procedures Fulfil responsibilities in accordance with the emergency response plans and procedures Provide assistance to conduct an initial survey of the scene of an emergency Provide assistance to control the site before and after the arrival of emergency services 6.2.3 Arrange support and assistance Arrange medical assistance and support as required in accordance with workplace procedures Arrange first aid support before the arrival of medical assistance in accordance with relevant workplace procedures 6.2.4 Communicate with staff members and visitors Identity safety needs arising from emergency situations and meet the needs with reference to established workplace emergency procedures Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures 7. Assessment Criteria		 Know about relevant regulations (e.g., Dangerous Goods Ordinance and Occupational
6.2.1 Respond to emergency situations Identify and assess emergency and potential emergency response plans/procedures (e.g., availability of technical information, designation of emergency response leader and alternate emergency response leader, identification of clear internal/external communication channels and notification lists, protection of personnel safety; identification of alternate water sources and supplies of safety equipment; and protection of property) Handle situations appropriately with reference to workplace emergency procedures Complete incident reports accurately in accordance with regulatory and workplace emergency procedures Eulfil responsibilities in accordance with the emergency response plans and procedures Provide assistance to conduct an initial survey of the scene of an emergency Provide assistance to control the site before and after the arrival of emergency services 2.2 Take required actions Arrange support and assistance Arrange medical assistance and support as required in accordance with workplace procedures Arrange first aid support before the arrival of medical assistance in accordance with relevant workplace procedures Arrange first aid support before the arrival of medical assistance in accordance with reference to established workplace emergency procedures Arrange appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace emergency procedures The integrated outcome requirements of this unit of competency are Capable of responding to emergency Capable of taking required actions to manage emergencies		Safety and Health Ordinance)
Identify and assess emergency and potential emergency situations Prioritise needs in accordance with the workplace emergency response plans/procedures (e.g., availability of technical information, designation of emergency response leader and alternate emergency response leader, identification of clear internal/external communication channels and notification lists, protection of personnel safety; identification of alternate water sources and supplies of safety equipment; and protection of property) Handle situations appropriately with reference to workplace emergency procedures Complete incident reports accurately in accordance with regulatory and workplace emergency procedures Cale Take required actions Fulfil responsibilities in accordance with the emergency response plans and procedures Provide assistance to conduct an initial survey of the scene of an emergency Provide assistance to control the site before and after the arrival of emergency services 6.2.3 Arrange support and assistance Arrange medical assistance and support as required in accordance with workplace procedures Arrange first aid support before the arrival of medical assistance in accordance with relevant workplace procedures 6.2.4 Communicate with staff members and visitors Identity safety needs arising from emergency situations and meet the needs with reference to established workplace emergency procedures Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures 7. Assessment criteria Capable of responding to emergency Capable of taking required actions to manage emergencies
 Prioritise needs in accordance with the workplace emergency response plans/procedures (e.g., availability of technical information, designation of emergency response leader and alternate emergency response leader, identification of clear internal/external communication channels and notification lists, protection of personnel safety; identification of alternate water sources and supplies of safety equipment; and protection of property) Handle situations appropriately with reference to workplace emergency procedures Complete incident reports accurately in accordance with regulatory and workplace emergency procedures 6.2.2 Take required actions Fulfil responsibilities in accordance with the emergency response plans and procedures Provide assistance to conduct an initial survey of the scene of an emergency Provide assistance to conduct an initial survey of the scene of an emergency services 6.2.3 Arrange support and assistance Arrange medical assistance and support as required in accordance with workplace procedures Arrange first aid support before the arrival of medical assistance in accordance with relevant workplace procedures 6.2.4 Communicate with staff members and visitors Identity safety needs arising from emergency situations and meet the needs with reference to established workplace emergency procedures Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures The integrated outcome requirements of this unit of competency are Capable of responding to emergency Capable of taking required actions to manage emergencies
(e.g., availability of technical information, designation of emergency response leader and alternate emergency response leader, identification of clear internal/external communication channels and notification lists, protection of personnel safety; identification of alternate water sources and supplies of safety equipment; and protection of property) Handle situations appropriately with reference to workplace emergency procedures Complete incident reports accurately in accordance with regulatory and workplace emergency procedures Fulfil responsibilities in accordance with the emergency response plans and procedures Provide assistance to conduct an initial survey of the scene of an emergency ervices 1.2.3 Arrange support and assistance Arrange medical assistance and support as required in accordance with workplace procedures Arrange first aid support before the arrival of medical assistance in accordance with relevant workplace procedures 2.4 Communicate with staff members and visitors Identity safety needs arising from emergency situations and meet the needs with reference to established workplace emergency procedures Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures The integrated outcome requirements of this unit of competency are Capable of responding to emergency Capable of taking required actions to manage emergencies
 Handle situations appropriately with reference to workplace emergency procedures Complete incident reports accurately in accordance with regulatory and workplace emergency procedures 2.2 Take required actions Fulfil responsibilities in accordance with the emergency response plans and procedures Provide assistance to conduct an initial survey of the scene of an emergency Provide assistance to control the site before and after the arrival of emergency services Arrange support and assistance Arrange medical assistance and support as required in accordance with workplace procedures Arrange first aid support before the arrival of medical assistance in accordance with relevant workplace procedures Edentity safety needs arising from emergency situations and meet the needs with reference to established workplace emergency procedures Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures Capable of responding to emergency Capable of taking required actions to manage emergencies 		(e.g., availability of technical information, designation of emergency response leader and alternate emergency response leader, identification of clear internal/external communication channels and notification lists, protection of personnel safety; identification of alternate water sources and supplies of safety equipment; and
 Fulfil responsibilities in accordance with the emergency response plans and procedures Provide assistance to conduct an initial survey of the scene of an emergency Provide assistance to control the site before and after the arrival of emergency services 6.2.3 Arrange support and assistance Arrange medical assistance and support as required in accordance with workplace procedures Arrange first aid support before the arrival of medical assistance in accordance with relevant workplace procedures 6.2.4 Communicate with staff members and visitors Identity safety needs arising from emergency situations and meet the needs with reference to established workplace emergency procedures Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures Assessment Criteria The integrated outcome requirements of this unit of competency are Capable of responding to emergency Capable of taking required actions to manage emergencies 		 Handle situations appropriately with reference to workplace emergency procedures Complete incident reports accurately in accordance with regulatory and workplace emergency procedures
 Arrange medical assistance and support as required in accordance with workplace procedures Arrange first aid support before the arrival of medical assistance in accordance with relevant workplace procedures 6.2.4 Communicate with staff members and visitors Identity safety needs arising from emergency situations and meet the needs with reference to established workplace emergency procedures Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures Assessment Criteria Capable of responding to emergency Capable of taking required actions to manage emergencies 		 Fulfil responsibilities in accordance with the emergency response plans and procedures Provide assistance to conduct an initial survey of the scene of an emergency Provide assistance to control the site before and after the arrival of emergency services
 Arrange first aid support before the arrival of medical assistance in accordance with relevant workplace procedures 6.2.4 Communicate with staff members and visitors Identity safety needs arising from emergency situations and meet the needs with reference to established workplace emergency procedures Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures 7. Assessment Criteria Capable of responding to emergency Capable of taking required actions to manage emergencies 		Arrange medical assistance and support as required in accordance with workplace
 Identity safety needs arising from emergency situations and meet the needs with reference to established workplace emergency procedures Provide appropriate and timely advice to staff members and visitors on emergency situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures Assessment Criteria Capable of responding to emergency Capable of taking required actions to manage emergencies 		 Arrange first aid support before the arrival of medical assistance in accordance with relevant workplace procedures
situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures The integrated outcome requirements of this unit of competency are Criteria Capable of responding to emergency Capable of taking required actions to manage emergencies		 Identity safety needs arising from emergency situations and meet the needs with reference to established workplace emergency procedures
 Criteria Capable of responding to emergency Capable of taking required actions to manage emergencies 		 situations and provide instructions in accordance with workplace emergency procedures Demonstrate and explain evacuation procedures in accordance with workplace procedures
 Criteria Capable of responding to emergency Capable of taking required actions to manage emergencies 	7. Assessment	The integrated outcome requirements of this unit of competency are
 Capable of taking required actions to manage emergencies 	Criteria
• Capable of arranging support and assistance, and communicating with related parties		Capable of arranging support and assistance, and communicating with related parties
8. Remarks	8. Remarks	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •