Specification of Competency Standards for the Logistics Industry Unit of Competency

Functional Area - Insurance, Legal Matters and Compliance

This unit of competency is applicable to logistics service providers. Practitioners should be capable of handling insurance matters by applying the basic principles of insurance contract and base on the understanding of the transport procedures as well as the characteristics of the goods. Level 3 Gredit 3 (For Reference Only) Performance Requirements 1. Basic principles of insurance contract • Understand the structure of the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance • Understand the monitor of insurance companies or intermediaries by the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance • Understand the application of relevant insurance legislations in Hong Kong and other countries • Understand the pasic principles of insurance law, including the principle of utmost good faith, duty of disclosure, insurable interest, contract of indemnity, etc. • Understand the legal responsibilities and impact by violation of law • Understand the characteristics of the industry, the operating procedure, and the cooperation and relationship with customers 2. Handle insurance matters by applying the basic principles of insurance contract • Understand the impact on the validity of the insurance contract by violation of the principle of utmost good faith • Capable of distinguish material and immaterial circumstances so as to decide whether to inform the insurance company or not on any changes in business operation, insurance standards, etc. • Apply the definition of insurable interest to define whether the company possess legally-recognised interests in the subject matter insured so as to arrange a valid insurance contract • Insure for the subject matter insured at suitable time • Understand the principle of contract of indemnity so as to decide the appropriate sum insured and make claims for it • Understand insurer in the situation of underinsurance and how to assess the compensation amount • Apply relevant basic principles of insurance law to handle claims The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency is:
This unit of competency is applicable to logistics service providers. Practitioners should be capable of handling insurance matters by applying the basic principles of insurance contract and base on the understanding of the transport procedures as well as the characteristics of the goods. Level 3 Credit 3 (For Reference Only) Performance Requirements 1. Basic principles of insurance contract Understand the structure of the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance Understand the monitor of insurance companies or intermediaries by the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance Understand the application of relevant insurance legislations in Hong Kong and other countries Understand the basic principles of insurance law, including the principle of utmost good faith, duty of disclosure, insurable interest, contract of indemnity, etc. Understand the legal responsibilities and impact by violation of law Understand the criminal and civil liabilities for business in general Understand the characteristics of the industry, the operating procedure, and the cooperation and relationship with customers 2. Handle insurance matters by applying the basic principles of insurance contract Understand the impact on the validity of the insurance contract by violation of the principle of utmost good faith Capable of distinguish material and immaterial circumstances so as to decide whether to inform the insurance company or not on any changes in business operation, insurance standards, etc. Apply the definition of insurable interest to define whether the company possess legally-recognised interests in the subject matter insured so as to arrange a valid insurance contract Insure for the subject matter insured at suitable time Understand the principle of contract of indemnity so as to decide the appropriate sum insured and make claims for it Understand insurer in the situation of underinsurance and how to assess the compensation amount Apply relevant basic principles of insurance law to handle claims	Title	Apply basic principles of insurance law to handle insurance matters
capable of handling insurance matters by applying the basic principles of insurance contract and base on the understanding of the transport procedures as well as the characteristics of the goods. Level 3 Credit 3 (For Reference Only) Performance Requirements 1. Basic principles of insurance contract Understand the structure of the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance Understand the monitor of insurance companies or intermediaries by the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance Understand the application of relevant insurance legislations in Hong Kong and other countries Understand the basic principles of insurance law, including the principle of utmost good faith, duty of disclosure, insurable interest, contract of indemnity, etc. Understand the legal responsibilities and impact by violation of law Understand the criminal and civil liabilities for business in general Understand the characteristics of the industry, the operating procedure, and the cooperation and relationship with customers Industriant the insurance matters by applying the basic principles of insurance contract Understand the impact on the validity of the insurance contract Understand the insurance company or not on any changes in business operation, insurance standards, etc. Apply the definition of insurable interest to define whether the company possess legally-recognised interests in the subject matter insured so as to arrange a valid insurance contract Insure for the subject matter insured at suitable time Understand the principle of contract of indemnity so as to decide the appropriate sum insured and make claims for it Understand insurer in the situation of underinsurance and how to assess the compensation amount Apply relevant basic principles of insurance law to handle claims The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency is: Capable of applying principles of insurance law to handle claims	Code	LOCULC302B
Performance Requirements 1. Basic principles of insurance contract • Understand the structure of the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance • Understand the monitor of insurance companies or intermediaries by the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance • Understand the application of relevant insurance legislations in Hong Kong and other countries • Understand the basic principles of insurance law, including the principle of utmost good faith, duty of disclosure, insurable interest, contract of indemnity, etc. • Understand the legal responsibilities and impact by violation of law • Understand the criminal and civil liabilities for business in general • Understand the characteristics of the industry, the operating procedure, and the cooperation and relationship with customers 2. Handle insurance matters by applying the basic principles of insurance contract • Understand the impact on the validity of the insurance contract by violation of the principle of utmost good faith • Capable of distinguish material and immaterial circumstances so as to decide whether to inform the insurance company or not on any changes in business operation, insurance standards, etc. • Apply the definition of insurable interest to define whether the company possess legally-recognised interests in the subject matter insured so as to arrange a valid insurance contract • Insure for the subject matter insured at suitable time • Understand the principle of contract of indemnity so as to decide the appropriate sum insured and make claims for it • Understand insurer in the situation of underinsurance and how to assess the compensation amount • Apply relevant basic principles of insurance law to handle claims The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency is: • Capable of applying principles of insurance law to handle claims	Range	capable of handling insurance matters by applying the basic principles of insurance contract and base on the understanding of the transport procedures as well as the characteristics of the
Performance Requirements 1. Basic principles of insurance contract • Understand the structure of the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance • Understand the monitor of insurance companies or intermediaries by the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance • Understand the application of relevant insurance legislations in Hong Kong and other countries • Understand the basic principles of insurance law, including the principle of utmost good faith, duty of disclosure, insurable interest, contract of indemnity, etc. • Understand the legal responsibilities and impact by violation of law • Understand the criminal and civil liabilities for business in general • Understand the characteristics of the industry, the operating procedure, and the cooperation and relationship with customers 2. Handle insurance matters by applying the basic principles of insurance contract • Understand the impact on the validity of the insurance contract by violation of the principle of utmost good faith • Capable of distinguish material and immaterial circumstances so as to decide whether to inform the insurance company or not on any changes in business operation, insurance standards, etc. • Apply the definition of insurable interest to define whether the company possess legally-recognised interests in the subject matter insured so as to arrange a valid insurance contract • Insure for the subject matter insured at suitable time • Understand the principle of contract of indemnity so as to decide the appropriate sum insured and make claims for it • Understand insurer in the situation of underinsurance and how to assess the compensation amount • Apply relevant basic principles of insurance law to handle claims The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency is: • Capable of applying principles of insurance law to handle claims	Level	3
1. Basic principles of insurance contract Understand the structure of the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance Understand the monitor of insurance companies or intermediaries by the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance Understand the application of relevant insurance legislations in Hong Kong and other countries Understand the basic principles of insurance law, including the principle of utmost good faith, duty of disclosure, insurable interest, contract of indemnity, etc. Understand the legal responsibilities and impact by violation of law Understand the criminal and civil liabilities for business in general Understand the characteristics of the industry, the operating procedure, and the cooperation and relationship with customers 2. Handle insurance matters by applying the basic principles of insurance contract Understand the impact on the validity of the insurance contract by violation of the principle of utmost good faith Capable of distinguish material and immaterial circumstances so as to decide whether to inform the insurance company or not on any changes in business operation, insurance standards, etc. Apply the definition of insurable interest to define whether the company possess legally-recognised interests in the subject matter insured so as to arrange a valid insurance contract Insure for the subject matter insured at suitable time Understand the principle of contract of indemnity so as to decide the appropriate sum insured and make claims for it Understand insurer in the situation of underinsurance and how to assess the compensation amount Assessment Triteria Criteria Criteria Capable of applying principles of insurance law to handle claims	Credit	3 (For Reference Only)
Understand the monitor of insurance companies or intermediaries by the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance Understand the application of relevant insurance legislations in Hong Kong and other countries Understand the basic principles of insurance law, including the principle of utmost good faith, duty of disclosure, insurable interest, contract of indemnity, etc. Understand the legal responsibilities and impact by violation of law Understand the criminal and civil liabilities for business in general Understand the characteristics of the industry, the operating procedure, and the cooperation and relationship with customers Handle insurance matters by applying the basic principles of insurance contract Understand the impact on the validity of the insurance contract by violation of the principle of utmost good faith Capable of distinguish material and immaterial circumstances so as to decide whether to inform the insurance company or not on any changes in business operation, insurance standards, etc. Apply the definition of insurable interest to define whether the company possess legally-recognised interests in the subject matter insured so as to arrange a valid insurance contract Insure for the subject matter insured at suitable time Understand the principle of contract of indemnity so as to decide the appropriate sum insured and make claims for it Understand insurer in the situation of underinsurance and how to assess the compensation amount Apply relevant basic principles of insurance law to handle claims The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency is: Criteria Criteria	Competency	Basic principles of insurance contract
Understand the impact on the validity of the insurance contract by violation of the principle of utmost good faith Capable of distinguish material and immaterial circumstances so as to decide whether to inform the insurance company or not on any changes in business operation, insurance standards, etc. Apply the definition of insurable interest to define whether the company possess legally-recognised interests in the subject matter insured so as to arrange a valid insurance contract Insure for the subject matter insured at suitable time Understand the principle of contract of indemnity so as to decide the appropriate sum insured and make claims for it Understand insurer in the situation of underinsurance and how to assess the compensation amount Apply relevant basic principles of insurance law to handle claims The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency is: Capable of applying principles of insurance law to handle claims		 Commissioner of Insurance Understand the application of relevant insurance legislations in Hong Kong and other countries Understand the basic principles of insurance law, including the principle of utmost good faith, duty of disclosure, insurable interest, contract of indemnity, etc. Understand the legal responsibilities and impact by violation of law Understand the criminal and civil liabilities for business in general Understand the characteristics of the industry, the operating procedure, and the
Capable of applying principles of insurance law to handle claims		 Understand the impact on the validity of the insurance contract by violation of the principle of utmost good faith Capable of distinguish material and immaterial circumstances so as to decide whether to inform the insurance company or not on any changes in business operation, insurance standards, etc. Apply the definition of insurable interest to define whether the company possess legally-recognised interests in the subject matter insured so as to arrange a valid insurance contract Insure for the subject matter insured at suitable time Understand the principle of contract of indemnity so as to decide the appropriate sum insured and make claims for it Understand insurer in the situation of underinsurance and how to assess the compensation amount
Capable of applying principles of insurance law to handle claims	Assessment Criteria
Remark		Capable of applying principles of insurance law to handle claims
	Remark	